Admissions Policy
The IB Diploma Programme
Porsgrunn Videregående Skole

Admission is open to students of all nationalities who demonstrate the ability to access and benefit from the challenging international curriculum and programme of the International Baccalaureate Diploma.

Admission is dependent on:

- Meeting all admission procedures and qualifications. (See below)
- Availability of places.
- A residency permit for Norway and an address in Vestfold and Telemark Fylkeskommune.

In the event of a shortage of places, priority will be given to:

- Students with a good previous academic record.
- Students who do not speak Norwegian fluently.
- Students who have come from another school equivalent to the first year of the Norwegian Upper Secondary general studies course.

Necessary Qualifications

- First year of Norwegian Upper Secondary general studies, Music Dance and Drama or Sport or Art with general studies.
- A fulfilled IB Middle Years Programme (MYP 5)
- Equivalent qualification to any of the above, including a minimum of 10 years of schooling.

- A satisfactory level of English to enable a student to follow the programme.
- A satisfactory level of mathematics which would equate with the presumed knowledge necessary for the IB diploma mathematics courses.

Porsgrunn Videregående Skole may require a student to undertake an entrance examination in mathematics and English if they are unsure of a student's ability to access the diploma programme.

Students should apply through www.vigo.no
